

BERENFELD SPRITZER SHECHTER AND SHEER LLP PROMOTES JOCELYN R. FLYNT TO PRINCIPAL

CORAL GABLES - Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP, one of South Florida's largest independent accounting firms, has announced the promotion of Jocelyn R. Flynt, CPA, to Principal in the firm's tax practice.

Flynt has been with Berenfeld's Miami office since October 2000. In her new role, Flynt will focus on estates and trusts, as well as large corporate returns for homebuilders and contractors. She previously served the firm as a tax manager.

A Certified Public Accountant since 1984, Flynt received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting and a Masters of Science in taxation, both from Florida International University. She maintains active membership in the Florida Institute for Certified Public Accountants, and served as President of the organization's South Dade chapter in 2006.

Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP is one of the largest independent accounting firms in South Florida with offices in Coral Gables and Fort Lauderdale. Founded in 1971, the firm is composed of more than 150 professionals providing accounting, audit, tax, litigation-support, and advisory services. The firm serves as a trusted advisor to domestic and international business clients, the legal community and high-net-worth individuals. For more information, visit www.berenfeldllp.com.
