

BERENFELD PARTNER EMERY SHEER NAMED TO SUPER BOWL STADIUM IMPROVEMENT SUB-COMMITTEE

CORAL GABLES – Emery Sheer, managing partner of Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP, has been named to the South Florida Super Bowl Committee's Stadium Improvement Sub-Committee.

Comprised of community leaders from various industries, the sub-committee's goal is to create solutions that will uphold Sun Life Stadium's reputation as a world-class venue. The committee will make recommendations for stadium improvements in an effort to be selected as the venue for the 2014 Super Bowl.

As one of the founding partners of the firm, Sheer is responsible for activities related to business consulting, tax, estate planning and preparation of tax returns for clients varying in size from individuals to closely held companies and large national corporations. Sheer provides tax, accounting and management consulting services to a variety of companies with a concentration on the sports and entertainment industry.

Outside of his roles on the Super Bowl Host Committee and the Stadium Improvement Sub-Committee, Sheer is a board member of several other regional and national organizations, including the Arsht Center of the Performing Arts Trust and Baptist Health System Foundation. Sheer also serves as the CFO and Executive Producer of White Buffalo Entertainment, which produces films for theatrical and television release including the current 2010 Academy Award nominee "Which Way Home".

Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP is one of the largest independent accounting firms in South Florida with offices in Coral Gables and Fort Lauderdale. Founded in 1971, the firm is composed of more than 150 professionals providing accounting, audit, tax, litigation-support, and advisory services. The firm serves as a trusted advisor to domestic and international business clients, the legal community and high-net-worth individuals.
