

BERENFELD PARTNER TRACY WEINTRAUB HONORED AS CHILDREN'S ADVOCATE BY BIG BROTHERS BIG SISTERS OF BROWARD

MIAMI —Tracy Weintraub, managing partner of the Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP Broward office, has been named one of South Florida's leading children's advocates by Big Brothers Big Sisters (BBBS) of Broward County. The youth mentoring agency will honor Mr. Weintraub, alongside AutoNation's Mike Maroone and former Miami Heat center Alonzo Mourning, at its annual Déjà Vu Gala on October 10.

In addition to managing the firm's Fort Lauderdale office, Mr. Weintraub serves clients with a full range of accounting and tax services. His practice focuses on auditing and compliance services for a wide variety of public, private and not-for profit organizations. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

As the father of two, Mr. Weintraub maintains a strong interest in not-for-profit causes that benefit children. He serves as Treasurer and a Board of Directors member of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward County and is a Board member of the Unicorn Children's Foundation, a charity promoting the needs of youngsters with neuro-developmental disabilities.

Mr. Weintraub, a South Florida resident of South Florida for the past 28 years, lives in downtown Fort Lauderdale and serves actively on the Board of Directors of the Fort Lauderdale Riverwalk Trust. He previously served on the Board of Do the Right Thing Miami, and the Executive Committee of the Broward County Heart Ball, which benefits the American Heart Association.

He and his wife Ellen are actively involved in a wide variety of civic, cultural and charitable causes, including Women in Distress of Broward County, the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Fort Lauderdale, and the University of Miami Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.
